Our Universal Home

ONE of the fundamental ideas of the primeval wisdom of mankind is that Man and the Universe are essentially one. This idea is the very keystone of the Temple of the Ancient Wisdom. If you understand it, if you feel it, if you grasp it, your whole life is changed, your whole outlook on existence is radically altered. You then recognise yourself to be at one with all that is, a partaker, in time, of all that the Universe has and is, journeying towards a destiny so sublime that the utmost imaginative efforts of mankind cannot at present sketch even a fragmentary outline of what the far distant future has in store for us. This destiny is simply the unfolding, as evolution proceeds – and unfolding is what evolution really means – of the inner unto becoming the outer, the bringing forth of what is locked up within, not only in man but in Mother Nature herself. It is Mother Nature and her divine, spiritual, psychological, ethereal, and physical reaches that is our Universal Home — a Home which is Universal because it is everywhere.
